Lucinda Holliday - An Autobiography

"I'm Lucinda Holliday (a.k.a. Larry Moore) born under the sign of Scorpio on Tuesday October 25, 1966 and grew up in the VERY small town of Goodell, Iowa. [1] [2]

A town of one hundred seventy four (174) people, and I am the youngest of 5 kids. Being the youngest, I always had to be VERY entertaining so I learned how to make people laugh early on in life and never forgot how to do it.

Growing up FABULOUS in the Mid-West was not the easiest thing in the world with the Annual Watermelon Day & Parade every August 25th being the highlight event of the year.

But, having a great family beside me was truly amazing. They have been behind me all my life. Actually, my parents asked me to perform at their 50th wedding anniversary.

I was able to show my family and friends that I am just a man who is an actor and a caring human being.

Time was often spent playing with my sisters Barbie's. What FABULOUS little boy didn't? I would tie the Barbie's in the back of my trucks and strap the truck to the back of my bike. Then, I would DRAG that girl around with me for hours riding through mud puddles and trash piles. She would get so dirty, she would take her bath with me after supper. Then, after our bath, I would do her hair and dress her up so she and Ken could go on their date. I made earrings for her out of STRAIGHT PINS. I cut them off short and I would shove them in her head. She had every color earring that I could find. And, oh her pumps. She had every color and style imaginable. She even had a pair of White and a pair of Green Go Go Boots. She was such a DIVA!!!! Even my Grandmother Prilipp made clothing and accessories for her.

HIGH SCHOOL

In school at Klemme Community Jr. Sr. High School in Belmond, Iowa from 1981-1985 my interest gravitated to singing and dancing in the school chorus, swing choir. Then I landed the lead roles in plays and musicals. I had found my calling. I was going to become a SUPER STAR.

Well, there is only so far a person can go in a small town, so I came out to Tucson, AZ for a 3 month working vacation. That was in 1989. And, here I am.....

ARIZONA

Not long after moving to Arizona in 1989, I found the art of Female Impersonation. I knew I could do it so, I went to K Mart and bought my first polyester dress... And a hat. (I couldn't do wigs at that time.) I picked out my name from AS THE WORLD TURNS, a soap opera. There was a character on there (Lucinda Walsh) that had everything she ever wanted. She was powerful and I LOVED HER....So, Lucinda was born.

*My last name came from my drag mentor/drag mom, Bobbi Holliday. He was the first drag queen I ever saw and met in Tucson.
And after his death in Dec. 1989, I took on his last name as a memorial.*

*So, Lucinda Holliday was born. I have hosted and performed in shows at IBT's, COLORS,
Woody's, The Graduate, Hours, Coyote Moon
Pub, (I am probably forgetting some) in Tucson, for MANY years. I am known as Tucson's Queen of Comedy. I love to make people laugh and take them to the edge. If I can make 1 person laugh each day, I have done my job. I am the longest running Drag Queen in Tucson. I am like a dinosaur or something. A "drag-asaurus."*

PAGEANTS

I started competing for pageants in 1990. I ran for Miss Gay Tucson 5 yrs. in a row and lost all 5 years in a row. It was only later in 1994, that I would be crowned 'Miss Gay Tucson' by default. The winner moved to San Diego. I ran for Miss Gay Arizona the same year and won the title. It was an amazing time! I went to the Miss Gay America pageant in Dallas that yr. and met Patti Le Plae Safe, MGA 1995. Patti and I have remained true friends this whole time. We have traveled all over the world exploring. Because of the pageantry and drag I have met tons of great friends... I have also met some complete pains in the ass....

Since competing at MGA in 1995, I have been at MGA nearly every year and became the Official Jeweler in 2001. In 2005 I became the Official Jeweler to La Femme Magnafique and then in 2008 also to All American Goddess.

Along the way I have watched a few queens have their dreams come true, and also watched a whole bunch of turds have their faces cracked like Humpty Dumpty. But, don't fret ladies, there is plenty of room on the BOOGER BUS for all of us as I count myself as the head BOOGER and the one giving away free rides. Please Unfasten your safety belts, it is gonna be one hell of a ride.

Time came for me to become the promoter for the Miss Gay Tucson America, Miss Gay Arizona Pageant, and Miss Gay Latina Pageant. My productions included 19 very successful contests produced. Each pageant was attended by hundreds of spectators and supporters, and I enjoyed them all so much, but in time it became too much for me to handle.

In 2002 I produced my last Miss Gay Arizona Pageant. Giving up the pageant was one of the hardest things I have ever done. But, moving on to other different challenges has its rewards also while still keeping involvement in the contests as a consultant and judge for numerous local and regional pageants.

BEAUTY SCHOOL

The year 1989 was a huge turning point year for me beginning beauty school and I have been doing hair ever since. I love to do hair, it affords me to come and go as I please and take as many trips as I can handle. Plus, I get to talk all day long. And girl, let me tell you, these women can talk too. They love to gossip!!!!

ENTERTAINMENT

In 2000, I was blessed to be in a musical comedy called "When Pigs Fly." It was an amazing experience. Many hours of rehearsal and confidence building. I had the best time of my life with that show. I have built some lasting friendships.

Because of the live vocals in the show, my idea was to bring that to my drag show. Now,

I host, lip sync, do comedy and I sing live. I have been enjoying it so much. I am also looking into doing another musical in the near future.

Recently, I have begun doing a ONE WOMAN SHOW and traveling around selling my jewelry. The show is Me onstage for 1 1/2 hours. I sing, lip sync and do live standup comedy. I have had a great response from the show. So, keep your eyes open for it. I will be going to many national contests as well, selling my jewelry. See you there.

After 12 years of not competing in pageants, a decision was made to run for Miss Gay NCC because someone I disliked was running and I won. That same month I ran for Miss Gay Arizona United States Of America At Large and I won....I then went to Miss United States of America, not wanting to win... And met a lot of new friends.

In 2003, I was approached by the Casino Del Sol to put a Celebrity Impersonation show every Saturday night. The show lasted two and a half years (2.5 years) where we had a fantastic time and found a whole new fan base. Also performing was Barbie, Cher n
